Cincinnati Airport Marriott, Hebron, KY

February 6th – 8th, 2019

Do the Right Thing: Transforming Diversity

CALL FOR PROPOSALS & POSTERS

Deadline – November 30th

The Conference is hosted by five land grant universities from Indiana, Kentucky, and Ohio. It is designed for administrators, faculty, and staff from Cooperative Extension, research, and academic programs; private and public university representatives; K-12 educators; community outreach leaders; health and social services professionals; employers and supervisors; human resource staff; elected and appointed officials; and all others wanting to expand diversity efforts and increase cultural understanding in their communities and workplaces.

Proposals for presentations are being invited for the 2019 conference on best practices, curriculum models, research, professional development training, and success stories for implementing diversity initiatives in a variety of settings as it relates to this year's conference theme areas: Immigration, Social Justice, Inclusion, and Engagement.

The Planning Sub-Committee is seeking proposals for beginning, intermediate, and advanced levels of diversity learning. These proposals are peer-reviewed and you will be notified no later than December 21, 2018 if your presentation has been selected for presentation at the 2019 conference.

Conference Goal:

The overall conference goal is to link people and resources together in order to better integrate diversity into programs, policies, and practices for creating community well-being.

Conference Objectives:

1. Showcase best practices, curriculum models, research, outreach strategies, training methods, and/or success stories for implementing community-based or work related diversity initiatives in the areas of education, community development, the health field, and the workplace.
2. To identify research needs and questions related to culturally diverse practices.
3. To network and link resources to help integrate diversity into programs, policies, and accepted practices for creating community and workplace well-being.
4. To create space for participants to examine their experience through reflective dialogue sessions.

Please follow the format on the next two pages to prepare and submit proposals. The Conference Program Sub-committee will make the final selection decisions. Information you provide in this application will be used to evaluate your presentation proposal and will be published in promotional information if selected. Please check to make sure all information is accurate and how you would like it to appear in print.

You will be notified no later than December 21, 2018 if your presentation has been selected for a breakout session. Registration, travel, and lodging expenses are sole responsibility of presenter(s).

Length of Sessions: Concurrent sessions are 75 minutes. Presentation should include 5 - 10 minutes for Q&A.

Submit proposals via email as a PDF by November 30, 2018
